PREFACE

This report is one in a series on Soviet Ground Force and Logistic installations being prepared for a DIA/CIA Panel. The series is being coordinated, published and disseminated by NPIC. The photographic analysis is being performed by the NPIC Photographic Analysis Group, the CIA Photographic Intelligence Division (NPIC), and the Production Center 1P1c (DIA). The photographic analysis for this particular report was performed by the CIA Photographic Intelligence Division.

In the interest of uniformity, the titles and letter designators for the facilities observed at these installations are identical with those appearing in the project requirement. When a specific facility is not observed both its title and letter designator are omitted in the report.

Titles and letter designators for the various facilities are as follows: (A) railroad service, (B) road service, (C) landing strips, (D) administrative and troop housing areas, (E) storage areas, (F) ammunition storage areas, (G) POL storage areas, (H) other buildings and facilities, (J) equipment storage/maintenance areas, (K) athletic fields, (L) small arms firing ranges, (M) driver training areas, (N) tank/assault gun firing ranges, (P) flat trajectory firing ranges, (Q) artillery emplacements (batteries), (R) infantry or combined arms field training areas or courses, (S) special training facilities, (T) unidentified facilities or tracking activity.

SUMMARY

The Tatarsk Army Barracks are located 0.7 kilometers (km) south of the rail junction in Tatarsk, immediately west of the southeast branch of the Omsk-Chany rail line (Figure 1). An improved secondary road enters the installation at the northeast corner.

The installation (Figures 2 and 3) appears to be fenced and encompasses approximately 225 acres. It contains a total of 48 buildings: 20 administrative buildings/barracks, 22 general storage buildings, and 6 support buildings.

The latest available photography indicates a slight amount of winter activity within the installation. The installation has undergone no apparent change since its initial coverage

DESCRIPTION OF INSTALLATION

Railroad Service

The installation is not directly rail served. However, it is adjacent to the southeast branch of the Omsk-Chany rail line.

Road Service

The installation is connected to the urban complex by a secondary road which enters at the northeast corner of the compound.

Administrative and Troop Housing Area

Area D contains 20 administrative buildings/barracks and six support buildings.

General Storage Area

Area E contains 22 general storage buildings.

Small-Arms Firing Range

Area L is a 450- by 60-foot small-arms firing range of the revetted, known-distance type.
